Mrs. Owen-

I am very glad that I have been able to have classes under you the past three years. You have helped me alot and I have learned to really enjoy to sew.

Connie Taylor

Mrs. Owen,

I have enjoyed being in all of the plays that you have directed in the last four years. I hope that I can come back and visit your classes in the future.

Yours truly
Harold House

Mrs. Owen,
I am very sorry this year is almost over. I have enjoyed being in your classes.

HISTORY of the CLASS of 1961

In the year 1957, 35 freshmen entered the hallowed halls of Douglass High School. This group was soon to learn the responsibilities of being a part of D.H.S. First came the ecection of officers: president, Janet Darter; vice-president, Paul Hammans; and secretary, Jim Maxwell. After this came an introduction to high school life through a device known as initiation. This consisted of silly types of dress and the singing of a nonsensical song, to the tune of Davy Crockett. Mr. Broyles guided the class through this year.

There were many activities which the freshmen entered: sports, music, dramatics, and others. Two of our boys lettered on the A teams; in football-Ed Potter; and in basketball-Harold House. The two elected student council representatives were: Janet Darter and Paul Hammans.

The class was represented in the scholastic part of high school by Janet Darter, who attained the title of Honor Queen.

By the fall of 1958, the sophomore class numbered 34 members. Janet Darter we again elected to serve as president and Paul Hammans as vice-president. Those chosen to represent the sophomore class in student council were: Harold House, Paul Hammans, Ronald Fetter, and Janet Darter who served as reporter. Susan Bohrer replaced Ronald Fetter when he moved. Miss Lutz was class sponsor.

The sophomore class was well represented in sports and other activities. Harold House, Paul Hammans, and Ronald Fetter were on the basketball team; and Jerry Metz and Edward Potter were on the football team. Nancy Lytle, Rometa Edwards, and Carolyn Bannon were twirlers for the band. Beverley Sherar and Janet Darter lent their support to athletics as cheerleaders.

Janet Darter received the Honor Queen award and Harold House, and Jerry Metz shared the award of Honor King.

At the beginning of school year class officers for the forth-coming year were elected. Paul Hammans was elected president; Jim Maxwell, vice-president; Jerry Metz, secretary; and Ronald Bates, reporter. The junior representatives to the student council were: Sue Bohrer, Beverly Waples, Paul Hammans, and Jerry Metz. Mrs. Owen was the class sponsor.

Janet Darter and Beverley Sherar served for the second year as cheerleaders for the Bulldogs. Harold House received honorable mention for the basketball al-league team. Edward Potter also had the honor and ability to make the football all-league team.

There were some changes in the class throughout the year. Dale Heater joined the class. Doris Wright left to become Mrs. Euwell Hendrix and Jim Whitten moved to Arkansas.

On December 18, 1959, the junior play "The Valley of Ghosts" was presented in the school auditorium. It was directed by Mr. Darrell Hill. This was a myestery and was quite different from any other play ever given here. Also in the field of dramatics, Jim Maxwell, Harold House and Janet Darter were chosen to be in the contest play.

Beverley Sherar received a superior rating at the State Music Festival on her clarinet solo, while the trio of which Beverly Waples, and Sharon Brown were members also received a I.

This year both the football and basketball queens were juniors. Janet Darter received the honor of becoming football queen of 1959, and Carolyn Bannon made a lovely basketball queen of 1960.

The class chose pink and silver as their colors and it voted almost unanimously for lilacs for their flower. The class motto is "Not ending, just beginning."

The auditorium took on a new appearance for the Junior-Senior Banquet. The theme was South Pacific, and the auditorium looked almost like a paradise in the south seas with palm trees, an island, buried treasure and the song "Bali Hai" sung by Beverly Waples.

Susan Bohrer and Harold House were chosen to attend Girls' and Boys' State, to be held during the coming summer.

When the class of 1961 began its final year of high school it numbered only 25. Joyce Cooley had left the class during the summer to become Mrs. Robert Wright and Rometa Edwards became Mrs. Keith Seal. One new member was added when Mike Phillips enrolled shortly after school began in the fall. Ten members of the class attended school together for the full twelve years. They are: Ronald Bannon, Susan Bohrer, Sharon Brown, Harold House, Carryl Houser, Jim Maxwell, Alberta Renfro, Clifford Russell, Beverley Sherar, and Carol Wallingford.

The officers that were chosen for the final year at D.H.S. were: Paul Hammans, president; Jim Maxwell, vice-president; Susan Bohrer, secretary; and Carolyn Bannon, reporter. The student council representatives were: Jerry Metz who was elected president of the student council, Paul Hammans who was elected vice-president, Susan Bohrer and Janet Darter who were elected secretary and publicity director, respectively. Mr. Schreiner was the senior class sponsor.

In other organizations: Jim Maxwell was the president of the dramatics club; Paul Hammans was vice-president of dramatics club; Cynthia Leayman was president of Y-Teens; Susan Bohrer president of pep club, with Carol Wallingford vice-president. Jerry Metz was secretary of the D-Club.

The class was represented on the football team by Harold House, Jerry Metz, Clifford Russell, Dale Heater, Jim Maxwell, Eddie Potter, and Harold Venable. Paul Hammans, Dale Heater, Harold House, Jim Maxwell, and Harold Venable were the senior basketball players. Jerry Metz was the only senior wrestler that went to the state wrestling tournament. Other seniors on the team were Dennis Metheny, Eddie Potter, and Clifford Russell.

The cheerleaders for this final year at Douglass High School were all seniors. They were Carolyn Bannon, Susan Bohrer, Janet Darter, and Beverley Sherar.

The senior play was "The Importance of Being Earnest," directed by Joseph Ramsey.

The senior class gained honor from the many members that attained positions of royalty. Carolyn Bannon was chosen football queen. Her attendants were Sharon Brown, Janet Darter, and Beverley Sherar. Beverley Sherar was elected basketball queen. Attending her were Janet Darter, Cynthia Leayman, and Beverly Waples. Janet Darter, Harold House, and Jim Maxwell won the positions of honor students. Susan Bohrer was elected annual queen and Sharon Brown was chosen band queen.

The Douglass Band is composed of 60 members. It is a combination of high school and grade school students; about 30 from the grades. This the largest band Douglass has ever had.

The director, Mr. Garrison Murray, is an enthusiastic leader and arranged trips as a side light interest for the group. They marched at the Kansas State Fair in Hutchinson, Emporia State Band Day, and Winfield Veteran Day parade.

The band received all superior ratings at the League Festival held at Belle Plaine, and superior ratings at the District Festival held at Arkansas City, in the Spring of of 1960.

For the first year, a Band Queen was elected. Sharon Brown received this honor.

FOOTBALL QUEEN

The football queen for 1960-1961 was crowned on the evening of October 28, 1960, following the football game with Conway Springs. The queen is Carolyn Bannon and she was crowned by Eddie Potter, captain of the team for that game. He was also completing four years of football play for Douglass.

Due to inclement weather the coronation could not take place at the football field. It was held in the street in front of the American Legion Hall, in which the school dance took place after the coronation.

BASKETBALL QUEEN

The basketball queen coronation took place the evening of the Oxford basketball game February 2, 1961. To a nice teacher as teachers go.

Juanita

Very funny. Just kidding. You are a very nice person.

I have known you all of my life, but this last year I have really come to know you. Good luck in whatever you do. A friend always,

Sharon Maxwell

Good luck to the best Home Ec. teacher I know.

a friend always,

Genevieve Carter

Mrs. Owens.

I have learned a lot about sewing in your class this semester. I hope I can take a course from you in the future!

Best wishes!

a friend always

Charlotte

Mrs. Owens,

I Have enjoyed being in your class this year! I have learned a lot about sewing. Good luck always.
